NOW AVAILABLE FOR THE FIRST TIME,

All You Need Is Love makes its DVD debut as a lavish boxed set which contains all 17 episodes of the series on 5 discs. Contained within those discs is the 'Story of Popular Music,' encompassing Ragtime, Blues, Jazz, Vaudeville, The Musical, Folk, Swing, Country and Western, Rock 'n' Roll and beyond, and includes interviews with some of the major names of the past 50+ years including John Lennon, Paul McCartney, Elvis Presley, Jerry Lee Lewis, Jimi Hendrix, Stephen Sondheim, Benny Goodman, Bing Crosby, Mike Oldfield, The Beach Boys, Tina Turner, Sam Phillips, Dave Brubeck, Dizzy Gillespie, Richard Rodgers, Roy Rogers, Bo Diddley, Muddy Waters, Phil Spector, Bill Monroe, Bill Graham, Bill Wyman, Frank Zappa, Eric Clapton and many many more. It has frequently been described as the "definitive music documentary," and is regarded just as highly today as 'cult viewing' as it was over 30 years ago when it was first broadcast.

In the mid-70s, at the suggestion of John Lennon, the celebrated journalist and film director Tony Palmer decided to document the "Story of Popular Music" and set about interviewing and filming all the major players in the industry at that time, past and present. Even in the mid-70s this was seen as a monumental task, but despite the scale of the undertaking, Tony Palmer made a series of films that set the standard to which all subsequent biographers and documentary makers aspired to.

The critically acclaimed All You Need Is Love was broadcast across the world between 1976 and 1981. But since that time, it has neither been repeated nor commercially released on either video or DVD. MORE DETAILS ON THE NEXT PAGE »

EPISODE 14:
Mighty Good (The Beatles)

"They were very scruffy" recounts Allan Williams, The Beatles' first manager, as he describes The Beatles' early escapades in Hamburg and Liverpool. Soon Brian Epstein appeared on the scene, although he didn't like the sound The Beatles made. Nor did any record producer, and even George Martin now admits that he never believed they would make worldwide hit song writers. There was a cost, of course, which eventually had to be paid for this extraordinary euphoria. But, at the time, no-one seemed to care.

Featuring:

Allan Williams / Bill Graham / Brian Epstein / Derek Taylor / Donovan / George Harrison / George Martin / John Lennon / Mamas and the Papas / Murray the K / Paul McCartney / Ravi Shankar / Ringo Starr / Roger McGuinn / The Beach Boys / The Byrds

EPISODE 15:
All Along the Watchtower (Sour Rock)

The sixties began, according to Eric Burdon as "a party". Unfortunately, the party went sour. The swinging sixties tore itself apart in an orgy of self-congratulation and self-indulgence.

Featuring:

Alexis Korner / Bill Graham / Bill Wyman / Donovan / Eric Burdon / Frank Zappa / Janis Joplin / Jimi Hendrix / John Lennon / Manfred Mann / Mick Jagger / Paul McCartney / Peter Dinklage / Pink Floyd / The Doors / The Rolling Stones / The Who

EPISODE 16:
Whatever Gets You Through The Night (Glitter Rock)

This Episode takes place almost entirely on stage; fans are always seen from the performer's point of view.

Featuring:

Alice Cooper / Bob Marley and the Wailers / Clive Davis / Cream / David Bowie / Elton John / Emerson, Lake and Palmer / Eric Clapton / Gary Glitter / Helen Reddy / Jethro Tull / Keith Moon / Kiss / Labelle / Lester Bangs / Marie and Donny Osmond / Roxy Music

EPISODE 17:
Imagine (New Directions)

"The thing about rock 'n' roll" says Lester Bangs, "is that it is totally about adolescence, and about consumerism brought to the highest degree." In fact, as the film begins to point out, neither of these extreme points of view is true.

Featuring:

Baker-Gurvitz Army / Black Oak Arkansas / Electric Light Orchestra / Jack Bruce / Joy of Cooking / Lester Bangs / Manfred Mann / Michael John Bowen / Mike Oldfield / Rev. Jack Wyrzten / Stormy Tamasha / Tangerine Dream
